The powerhouse, free-wheeling quintet return to Cafe Jazz for another night of extemporisation. "Light the blue touchpaper and stand well back" they say. We say "why's it got to be blue?". As ever, the collective calls on five dedicated improvisers from South Wales to create another night of sweeping emotions and finding new paths to run down. John Coltrane wrote the tunes with all the grace and simplicity of a true master musician; the 'Dedication stands on their shoulders and aims for the horizons - for "in these horizons stones do sing"

FRIDAYS

7: THE FUGITIVES

It might get loud, it might get sweaty but it'll definitely be rocking !!!

From Bayonne to Bristol, the Basque country to Barry Island they are still just as lairy, and just as hairy. For the 16th year in succession, they have been voted the 4th best R&B outfit within a radius of 8.7 miles of Whitchurch village. By the most modest of estimations, they have now played almost 1000 gigs. That's 1000 Princess Margaret jokes and 1000 times Jason has tripped over the microphone stand. Good things never change. The Fugitives. Still the same, still brilliant.

Come feel the heat, tap your feet and you'll have to dance when you get the chance.
